

Sen. Brady Brammer represents Utah Senate District 21, which covers parts of Highland, Alpine, Cedar Hills, Lehi, American Fork and Pleasant Grove. He was first elected to the Utah House of Representatives in 2018 and began serving in the Utah Senate in 2025. He sits on the Senate Revenue and Taxation Committee and the Senate Judiciary, Law Enforcement and Criminal Justice Committee.

Sen. Brammer is a partner at the law firm Brammer Ranck, focusing on business litigation and business law. He previously taught ethics and business law as an adjunct professor at Brigham Young University, where he earned his bachelor's degree, J.D. and Master of Public Administration.

Sen. Brammer lives in Highland with his family. As both a father and engaged community member, he is dedicated to advancing policies that strengthen families, improve opportunity and promote responsible economic growth. His professional and academic background informs his thoughtful and principled approach to public service.