

Utah Legislature

OFFICIAL CITATION RECOGNIZING

Chief Troy Carr

The Utah Legislature recognizes and honors Herriman City Police Chief Troy Carr for his distinguished career in law enforcement and his leadership in establishing and guiding the Herriman Police Department.

Chief Troy Carr has served more than 34 years in law enforcement, demonstrating a lifelong commitment to public safety, service, and leadership. Throughout his career, he has earned the respect of colleagues, community members, and public officials through his dedication to professionalism, integrity, and the protection of the communities he served.

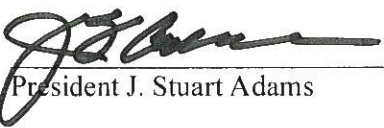

On June 6, 2018, Chief Carr was sworn in as the first police chief of Herriman City and was entrusted with the responsibility of building a new police department from the ground up. In an ambitious four-month period, he led the development of the department's operations, staffing, and service model, culminating in the Herriman Police Department's first patrol on September 30, 2018. His leadership during this formative time established a strong foundation that continues to guide the department today.

Under Chief Carr's direction, the Herriman Police Department developed a culture of professionalism, accountability, and public trust. His leadership emphasized transparency, responsible stewardship of public resources, and a thoughtful, data-driven approach to policing, helping to create a high-performing organization that serves the community with excellence. His work strengthened the relationship between law enforcement and the residents of Herriman, fostering confidence and trust that will endure for years to come.

Chief Carr has expressed deep gratitude for those he has served alongside, recognizing that the success of the department is built upon the professionalism and commitment of its officers and staff. His collaborative leadership and dedication to those around him have been central to the department's success and continued growth.

As Chief Carr retires on March 1, 2026, he leaves behind a lasting legacy of service, leadership, and commitment to community. His contributions have shaped the Herriman Police Department into an organization that reflects the highest standards of public safety and public service.

Now, therefore, be it known on this 27th day of February 2026, the Utah Legislature recognizes and commends Chief Troy Carr for his outstanding service to Utah and the city of Herriman, and expresses sincere appreciation for his decades of leadership, dedication, and commitment to protecting and serving his community.

President J. Stuart Adams

Senator Daniel McCay

Speaker Mike Schultz

Representative Candice Pierucci