

Sen. Keith Grover represents District 23 and has served in the Utah Legislature since 2007, first in the House of Representatives before moving to the Senate. He has been a champion of education, government efficiency and government transparency. Sen. Grover serves as the Vice Chair of the Senate Rules Committee and the Chair of the Senate Health and Human Services Committee.

Sen. Grover was born and raised in Provo, the district he now represents. He graduated from Brigham Young University. He spent his career in public education as an elementary teacher and administrator before retiring. He now works for the University of Utah in their global outreach efforts.

He looks forward to many more years of representing the people of the 23rd district.
